St. Francis de Sales

Vol. XVI

" . . . When death must come and I must gladly go
Will there be one to love my memory?
O Lord, shall I, too, leave an afterglow?"

First comes the rising sun and the magic of the morn. As the sun rises, so we have risen . . . the light of education . . . the glory of ideals . . . casting a brilliant hue on all below. Through the years, teachers, students, and school have created an eternal glow, never to be dimmed.

The day approaches its end and we see the sun's light fade, as all mortal force burns itself out. Though ours is a human monument of memories, there is a quality of immortality which will keep it burning brightly, shining now, shining forever . . . though our rising sun is no more.

Walk with us through the afterglow—and on to another rising sun.

The halls of Saint Francis
at dawn and at dusk,
Shall carry the spirit
of each one of us!
And when we've departed,
our memories will stay,
They'll live on forever,
though we're far away.

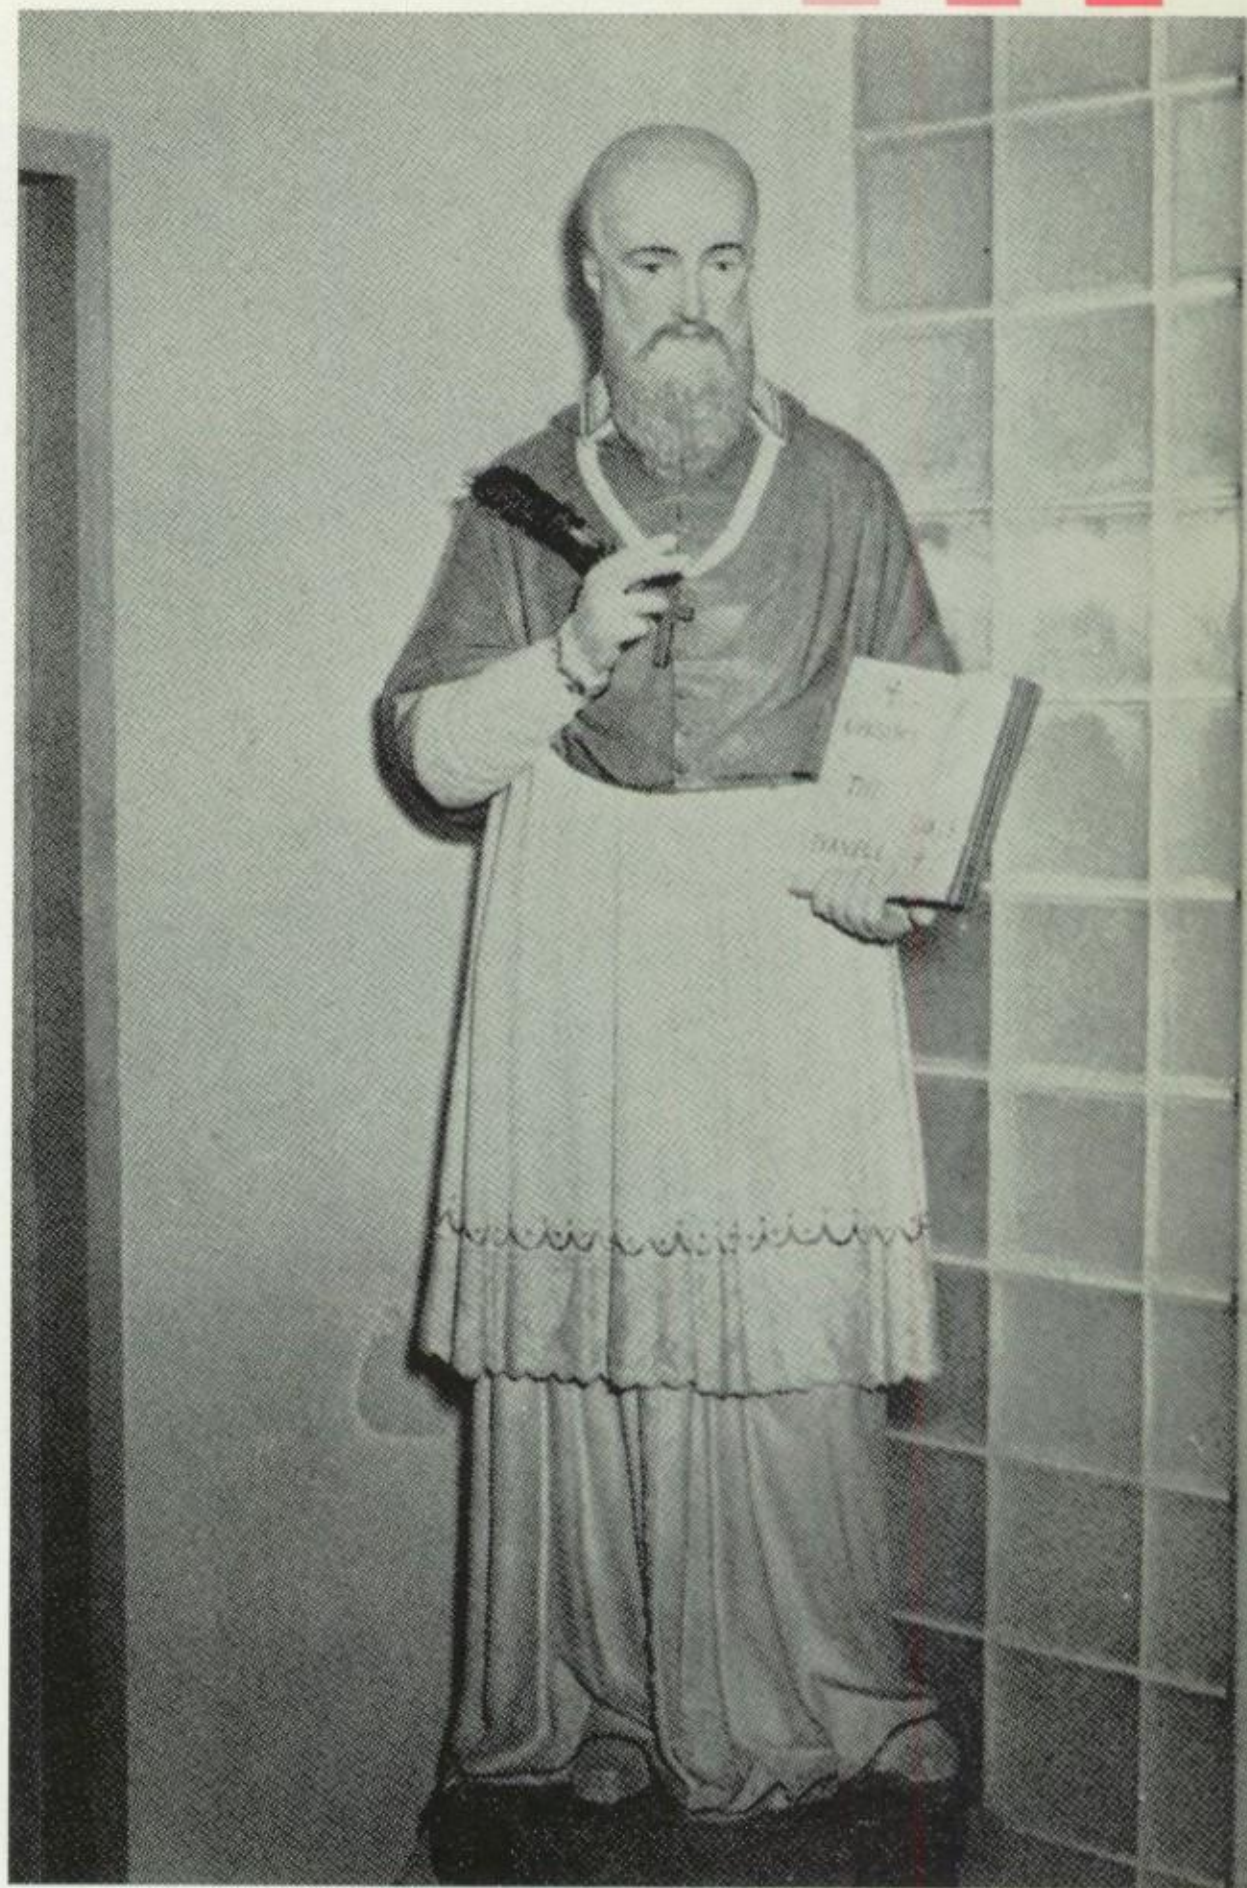

The halls of Saint Francis
shall echo forever,
The joys and the sorrows
we've shared altogether
And so dear Saint Francis,
we'd all like to say,
That you are in our hearts
until our dying day.

Pause and Consider . . .

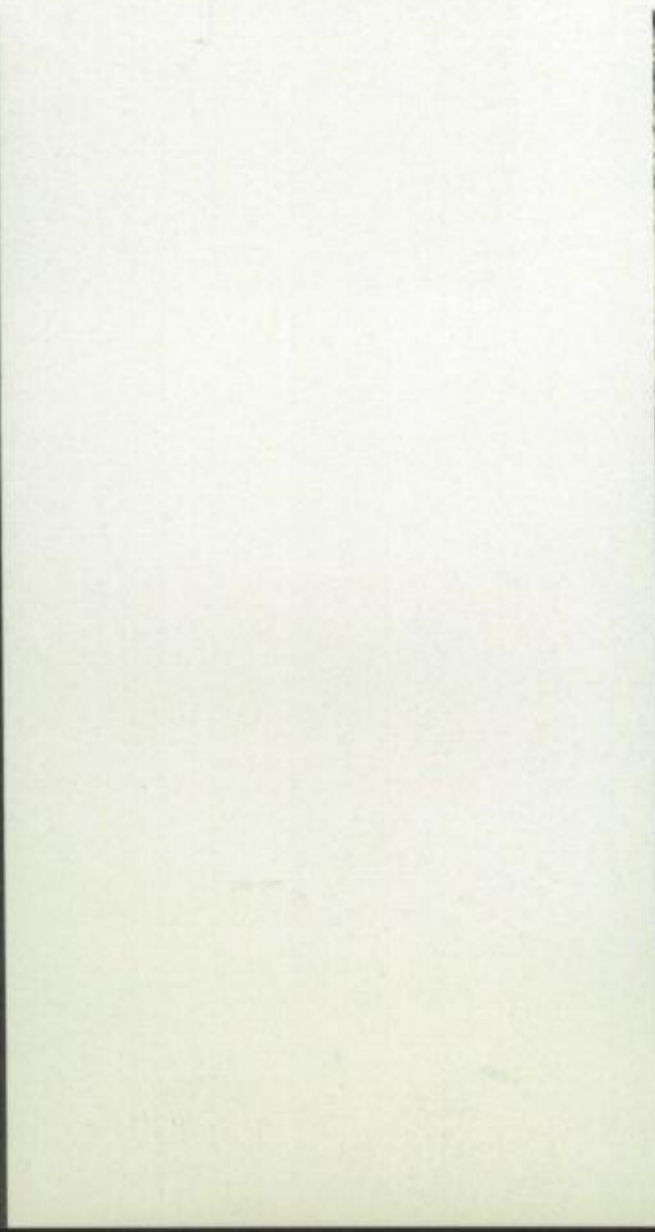

A school comes alive through the pulsating heart of its students . . . day after day, we experience the bitterness of disappointments . . . we become a part of something, a way of life and all that it means. Our energy and enterprise lend dignity to our actions—achieve for us a struggle ending in triumph. Our accomplishments reflect the truth that is St. Francis—as it has been, as it is . . . And so, with tender sentiment we present each as a cause for a dedication . . . of our hearts, to St. Francis . . . of this book—a part of our hearts. We see the perfections that lie beyond . . . we come to the end of a story . . . A place nearer to God . . .

An Afterglow.

To Carry on in

FATHER EMILE LAFRANZ—
Coordinator

My Dear Students:

As Terriers you possess a proud tradition of excellence that dates back to 1870, when Catholic high school students came to Houma. As a result of spiritual, intellectual, and civic competence, you are regarded as men and women of character in a school of champions. May you always live up to the proud Terrier image.

As Crusaders, you possess an added burden. You are called to be Christians who will lead the world of tomorrow with understanding, conviction, and dedication. The world needs your leadership. Don't let us down.

Yours in Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Emile J. Lafranz

Rev. Emile J. Lafranz
Coordinator

"In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

Holy and humble . . . a priest forever.

Making the Dream a Reality

Dear Graduates:

We must bid you a fond farewell and in doing so we come to the realization that Saint Francis High must say a sincere "Godspeed" to its final graduation class.

The future is gleaming brightly before you. You stand eagerly on the threshold of life. May you always reflect honor and credit to God, country, and your beloved S.F.S.

As you continue your education as students of "life", may you cherish the Christian principles that you have learned within these hallowed rooms. Honor these truths and they will ever guard you on life's journey to eternity.

God love you!

Sister Mary Clare, M.S.C.

Dear Graduates of 1965,
Ametur Cor Jesu!

Many renowned personages have preceded you through the ancient halls of St. Francis de Sales School. They have left you a heritage of scholarship, leadership, and spirituality. Former graduates are found in nearly every walk of life, and they are serving God and their fellow man with distinction.

To you falls the honor of being the last to graduate from these hallowed halls. Do not tarnish that privilege which is so singularly yours, but leave to the "new breed," (the first class of Houma Central Catholic High) the best example of what your forebears have left to you.

The new H.C.C.H. will in every sense of the word be your ALMA MATER. You shall always be welcomed by every member of the faculty both religious and lay. Always merit this welcome by a conduct beyond any reproach.

Yours in the Sacred Heart,

Brother Gaspar, S.C.

Swing for Perfection

Eric and Conroy Guillot, Mike Dupont, and Charles Chauvin, under the guidance of Brother Acquin soon reached par.

O.K. ball, on the count of three, zoom!

It was up to Mike to sink this putt and he did!

a Hole at a Time

If you're waiting for me to swing, forget it!

Come on, Charlie, you can make this one a "hole in one."

The 19th hole, a rest for our St. Francis golf team.

Practice Makes Perfect

1964-65 Terrierettes

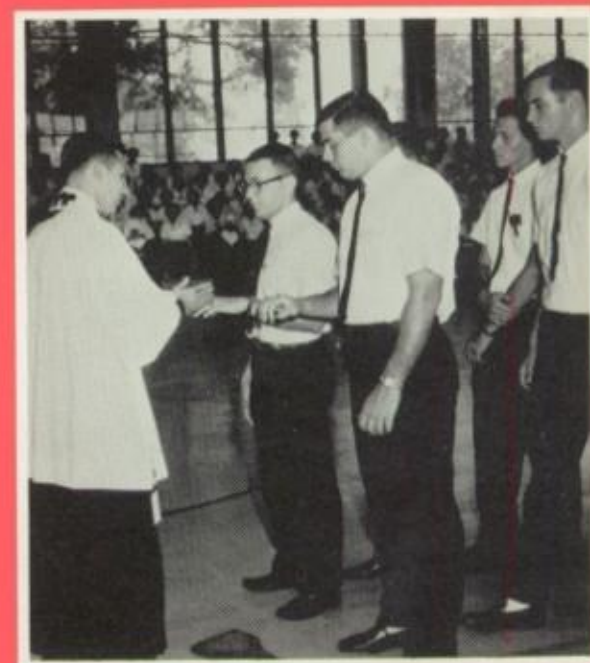

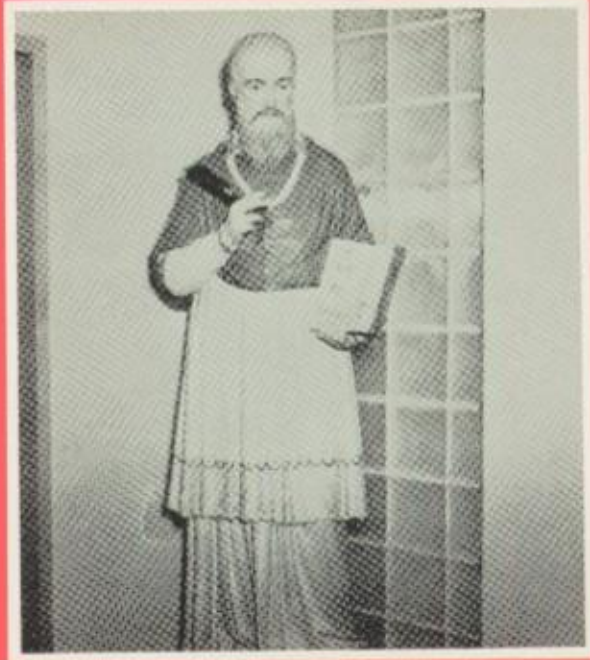

"Alright, Berwick can play marbles with us too."

Now jump tall and HIT the ball!

Linda's motto: "Dribble, dribble, dribble. Though I might not get to play, I can dribble anyway."

Acknowledgments

As the year has progressed, you have provided the material for the afterglow. Now we wish to thank those who, though not on the staff, have made it possible to portray the cause for this afterglow in the 1965 'Terr Alma . . . to Taylor Publishing Company and Mr. Buck Anderson . . . to Mr. John Gordon, Mr. Frank Musemeche of the Houma Courier . . . to our photographers; Mr. Frank Finane, Webb & Quave Studios, Mr. Ken Adams, and Brother Paul . . . to L & N Camera Center and Mr. Alba . . . and especially to Sister Mary Magdalene, who has helped us to preserve the afterglow . . . to each individual who has ever been a part of St. Francis and has given of himself, because what he gave helped to light the flame of St. Francis spirit which has made possible this last 'Terr Alma . . . the Afterglow.
